

KNOW YOUR BENEFITS.

From : Ronstadt Insurance, Inc. (520) 721-4848

Special Enrollment Periods

If you need health coverage and want to enroll in a Marketplace plan, you typically have to do so during the annual open enrollment period. For 2014 coverage, the open enrollment period ended on March 31, 2014. The open enrollment period for 2015 coverage will run Nov. 15, 2014, through Feb. 15, 2015.

If you don't have health coverage and you are outside the open enrollment period, you may be able to take advantage of a special enrollment period for qualified health plans on the Marketplace. Special enrollment periods are available only if you meet certain requirements. However, if you qualify for Medicaid or the Children's Health Insurance Program (CHIP), you can enroll in those programs at any time of the year—you can begin an application at HealthCare.gov and it will let you know whether you qualify and what you need to do to enroll.

If you do not have minimum essential health coverage, you may have to pay a fee unless you qualify for an exemption. For information on exemptions from the penalty, visit www.healthcare.gov/exemptions.

Qualifying Life Events

If you experience a qualifying life event, you are eligible to enroll during the special enrollment period. You usually have up to 60 days from the date of the qualifying event to enroll in a new plan. Qualifying life events include the situations described below.

1. Your personal circumstances change, including:

- Marriage
- Birth of a child

Even though open enrollment is closed for the year, certain qualifying life events may make you eligible for a special enrollment period for Marketplace coverage.

- Adoption or placement of child for adoption or foster care
- Gaining citizenship
- Moving residence
- Leaving incarceration

2. You experience an involuntary coverage change, which may include:

- Losing health insurance due to situations such as job-based coverage ending, divorce, aging off a parent's plan or end of an individual plan year in 2014—however, voluntarily giving up coverage, or losing coverage that is not minimum essential coverage, will NOT qualify you for special enrollment
- Losing eligibility for Medicaid or CHIP
- Becoming eligible for COBRA or having COBRA coverage expire (voluntarily dropping COBRA coverage is not a qualifying event, and you would usually have to wait until the coverage would have been exhausted in order to qualify

This Know Your Benefits article is provided by Ronstadt Insurance, Inc. and is to be used for informational purposes only and is not intended to replace the advice of an insurance professional. Visit us at www.ronstadtinsurance.com. ©2014 Zywave, Inc. All rights reserved.

Special Enrollment Periods for the Marketplace for special enrollment; however, see below for a special rule for COBRA enrollees) at 1-520-721-4848 in order to start the application process.

3. You gain status as a member of an American Indian tribe—members of federally recognized American Indian tribes can sign up for or change plans once a month throughout the year.

4. For individuals already enrolled in Marketplace coverage, a change in income or household status that affects eligibility for premium tax credits or cost-sharing reductions can make you eligible to elect a change in coverage.

Enrollment During Special Enrollment Periods

If you think you qualify for a special enrollment period, HealthCare.gov recommends that you complete a Marketplace application, which will guide you through the enrollment process if you are eligible.

Special Rule for COBRA Enrollees

Due to possible confusion regarding Marketplace enrollment options for individuals eligible for COBRA, the Department of Health and Human Services (HHS) announced on May 2, 2014, that COBRA enrollees will have an additional special enrollment period available to them.

Individuals who currently have COBRA coverage and want to instead enroll in a Marketplace health plan may do so through July 1, 2014. If you wish to take advantage of this special enrollment period, contact us

KNOW YOUR BENEFITS.